

CROSTINI TOSCANE

INGREDIENTS

Ciabatta, sliced
2tbsp Olive oil
400 g chicken livers
1 clove of garlic
1 small red onion
a few sage leaves 100 ml (½ cup) of Vin Santo or white wine
1 tsp of anchovy paste, or two anchovies 60 g capers
juice of half a small lemon chicken stock
2 tbsp balsamic vinegar
extra virgin olive oil
salt
pepper

INSTRUCTIONS

Step 1: Put oil, garlic and the anchovy fillet in a pan and over a medium low heat fry until the garlic just begins to go golden. Now add the onions and finely chopped capers and sage, salt and pepper and cook slowly over a low heat for 5 minutes until the onions begin to soften. Now add the livers and cook for 15-20 minutes. Stir occasionally.

Step 2: When done, remove from the pan and finely chop the mixture with a knife. Return to the pan over a low heat until it begins to stick slightly, then add the Vin Santo or white wine, and cook for 5 more minutes

Step 3: Squeeze in the lemon and add the balsamic vinegar (if using) and cook for a further 2 minutes.

Step 4: If the mixture is too thick, add a little stock.

Step 5: Slice the bread, brush with olive oil and grill until lightly crunchy and then top with a spoon of the liver mixture. Top with finely chopped parsley and a splash of olive oil.
